

Newsletter

of the ARChE_Net network

ARChE_Net is a regional partnership network sharing expertise on adaptation of the ruminant production systems' to a changing environment within the Indian ocean.

Here is the first newsletter of the ARChE_Net network. You will find below some article links referring to the last news of the network and of the ECLIPSE project. Enjoy your read !

The ECLIPSE coordination team wishes you a Happy New Year 2017 ! wishes card

Launch of the ECLIPSE project

ARChE_Net has officially started the ECLIPSE project during the first steering committee. It took place in Saint-Pierre of Reunion island on December 2016, 5th to 8th. Click to learn more

A new coordination team for the ECLIPSE project

Meet the new members of the ECLIPSE coordination team and their portrait. Click to learn more

Five new partner organizations have joined the ARChE_Net network !

Murdoch University, Fort Hare University, University of KwaZulu Natal, CSIR, ICRISAT. Click to learn more

Presentation stand of the ARChE_Net network at the Festival of Science 2016

The stand was hold at the Festival of Science in Saint Denis of Reunion island on December 2016, 1st to 3rd. During three days, many visitors have been very interested by the live presentation of the SPIR tool utilization on dry and fresh forages. Click to learn more

New communication tools

Posters of the ARChE_Net network and results

Click on the images

Youtube channel with several videos realized by the partners of the ARChE_Net network

Click on the logos

Follow the last news on the new facebook page !

Like and follow the page !

Contact

coordination.arche-net@cirad.fr

<http://arche-net.org>

Photos copyright : ARChE_Net

